Prologue

D
 Everyone's invited
 A Bm D
 (and) we're so excited
 A Bm Em
 Let's tell it everywhere
 A Bm D A Bm
 We're all invited

Verse 1

G D Em F#m

Jesus tells a story, about a certain man

G D Em F#

This guy could throw a party, the best in all the land

G D Em F#m

This certain man was ready, to get the party started

G D E A

He gave invites to his servant, who excitedly departed

Chorus

D
 Everyone's invited
 A Bm D
 (and) we're so excited
 A Bm Em
 Let's tell it everywhere
 A Bm D A Bm
 We're all invited

(repeat)

EXCITED ~~to be~~ INVITED

Verse 2

G D Em F#m
People got their invites, RSVPs came back
G D Em F#
Not one of them could make it, not even Bruce the yak
G D Em F#m
They all had excuses, they all had things to do
G D E A
Just got married, bought some land, and new animals too

Oh :(

Verse 3

G D Em F#m
The servant came back with the news, that nobody would come
G D Em F#
"That makes me mad!" the master said, "Let's think - what can be done?"
G D Em F#m
He changed his plans and said, go invite everyone you find
G D E A
Hungry, lonely, homeless people, the sick, the deaf, the blind

(Chorus)

Bridge

(Tagging game - progressive hi-five around the room with "you're invited!")

(Chorus)
