Prologue

Everyone's invited
(and) we're so excited
Let's tell it everywhere
We're all invited

Verse 1

Jesus tells a story, about a certain man
This guy could throw a party, the best in all the land
This certain man was ready, to get the party started
He gave invites to his servant, who excitedly departed

Chorus

Everyone's invited
(and) we're so excited
Let's tell it everywhere
We're all invited

(repeat)

Verse 2

People got their invites, RSVPs came back
Not one of them could make it, not even Bruce the yak
They all had excuses, they all had things to do
Just got married, bought some land, and new animals too

Verse 3

The servant came back with the news, that nobody would come
"That makes me mad!" the master said, "Let's think - what can be done?"
He changed his plans and said, go invite everyone you find
Hungry, lonely, homeless people, the sick, the deaf, the blind

(Chorus)

Bridge (Tagging game - progressive hi-five around the room with "you're invited!")

(Chorus)

Optional Tags – Repeat and Fade

Let's yell it everywhere: we're all invited sing // whisper // dance it // mime it // etc
