Verse 1

G
The sparrow and his friends, with their feathered wings
Fly above the clouds, they flap and chirp and sing
D C G
Have no care 'bout what they wear, God gives them all they need
G
The sun begins to set, they find a tree to rest
They make themselves a home, and build a little nest
D C G
Have no care 'bout where they live, God gives them all they need

Chorus 1

B^b G B^b G
God loves the sparrows, and takes great care of them
B^b G C D^{aug}
He loves us even more, so don't worry for anything
G
God gives us all we need

Verse 2

G
The lilies of the field, with their sweet perfume
Standing in the breeze, their colours in full bloom
D C G
Have no care 'bout what they wear, God gives them all they need
G
The moon comes out to shine, their petals close to sleep
Until a new day comes, when the morning sun they'll greet
D C G
Have no care 'bout where they live, God gives them all they need

Chorus 2

B^b G B^b G
God loves the lilies, and takes great care of them
B^b G C D^{aug}
He loves us even more, so don't worry for anything
G
God gives us all we need

(Chorus 2)
